

Let's Celebrate!

Vocabulary	Definition
Festival	A festival is a gathering of people to celebrate, often on a specific day for a specific reason.
Celebration	To mark a holiday or an important time in a special way.
Past	Something that has already happened.
Present	Something that is happening now.
Belief	A belief is a firm thought that something is true, but belief is not able to be tested.
Tradition	The way we do things.
Similarities	The way in which things are the same.
Differences	The way in which things are different.

Week 1 - Wb 31.10.22 Bonfire Night
Week 2 - Wb 7.11.22 Remembrance Diwali
Week 3 - Wb 14.11.22 Diwali
Week 4 - Wb 21.11.22 Eid
Week 5 - Wb 28.11.22 Hannukah
Week 6 - 5.12.22 Christmas
Week 7 - 12.12.22 Christmas

	Bonfire Night	Remembrance	Diwali	birthdays	Hanukah	Christmas	Eid
What	Bonfire Night	Remembrance Sunday/day	Festival of Light	Family traditions	Jewish Festival of Light	Celebrates the birth of Jesus	Marks the end of Ramadan
When	5 th November (1605)	11 th November (1918)	Every Autumn (24 th October this year)	Each persons birthday is the same day every year but the date differs from person to person	Late November or December	25 th December	In the 10 th month of the Muslim calendar
How	Bonfire and fireworks outdoors	Poppies and parade	Specific decorations – rangoli and diwa lamps	Cake, candles and presents	Lighting Menorah lamp and dreidel game	Secular – trees, presents, santa Non secular – carols, church	A big meal, prayers, gifts
Why?	Happened in the past – Gunpowder Plot	Linked to ww1	Part of a belief - Hinduism	To celebrate another year of life	Part of a belief - Judaism	Part of a belief - Christianity	Part of a belief - Islam
Where	England	Worldwide	Worldwide but significant in India	Worldwide	Worldwide – significant in Israel	Worldwide – western countries mainly	Worldwide